

Women's Group Worker

Who are we?

Women out West (WOW) is a women's centre in Whitehaven, covering the boroughs of Copeland and Allerdale, established to provide a safe, welcoming place for all women, and specifically victims of Domestic and Sexual Abuse. The building itself has been totally refurbished into bright modern spaces with different zones, all fully furnished and ready for use.

Who you are?

- Do you have experience facilitating group sessions with vulnerable groups?
- Do you understand the importance of empowering women?
- Do you have the ability to support vulnerable women in their day to day lives and make a difference?
- Do you have a relevant qualification in Social Work, Youth and Community certificate or extensive experience (one years plus) in providing women focussed service?

If the answer is yes, to these questions then we want to hear from you.....
